

My Queen

Written by Bill Jolly ©Be Jolly Music, Inc.

You're a queen to me

You're all and everything a woman should be

And that's why I love you

You're a queen to me

The highest of feminine royalty

I promise to love you my queen

You are more than my lady

You are more than my friend

You're more than beautiful to me within

You're my blessing, my good thing and you're all that I need

And I'll faithfully serve you my lovely queen

You're a queen to me

You're all and everything a woman should be

And that's why I love you

You're a queen to me

The highest of feminine royalty

I promise to love you my queen

My Queen Page 2

Queen mother, my lover, my rock and my soul
My heart, my everything, my hand to hold
My fantasies, my memories, my hopes and my dreams
Mere words can't describe what you mean my queen
There's no one more beautiful in this world to me
More inspiring, more tantalizing than you are my queen
I'll guard and protect you for you'll grant all my needs
To the end I'll stand by you forever, eternally
My queen

You're a queen to me
You're all and everything a woman should be
And that's why I love you
You're a queen to me
The highest of feminine royalty
I promise to love you
Place no one above you
I promise to love you
My queen
