

Bill Jolly has worked with: Humanitarian/Educational Projects:
(Music projects that Bill has worked on with children, the elderly or the disadvantaged.)

Susan. G. Komen Foundation's Honoring the Promise" Gala at the Kennedy Center,
"Tell The World" music video for Special Olympics,
Melon Bank's "The End Of The Violence Begins With Me" appearance on the Maury show,
NARAS' Grammys in Our Schools seminar(guest speaker),
Alex's Lemonade Ball for cancer awareness,
New Jersey Networks' "Arts For Every Kid" Commercials,
The Teddy Pendergrass Alliance for spinal cord injuries,
"One Church One Child" Adoption Promotion,
"My Place In This World" Latin Awareness play for Julia DeBurgos School,
Jocko's "Get Ready" Rap Educational Series,
Conductor for the All Philadelphia All Star High School Jazz Band,
Artreach performer for senior citizen centers,
Judge for Gratersford Prison Talent Contest,
Composer for Greenfield Elementary's "Ventman" (about homelessness) and "Scream from the Heart" (about teenage social issues),
The Drudgeling Center's "My Place in this World" CD project (homeless mothers), The Linda Creed Foundation for breast cancer awareness,
"Join The Resistance" anti-drug commercial campaign,
"Mothers in Charge" theme song producer for teen violence,
The Phila. Police and Firefighter Awards,
The Phila. Anti Drug and Violence Network,
"Safe Sex" campaign for the Family Life Educational Foundation,
Performances at Stetson Alternative H.S. for teens with social and behavioral problems